

HARDING POLICIES TO BE CONTINUED BY NEW EXECUTIVE

Public Statement Made to Newspaper Men—First Official Act to Issue Proclamation Calling Nation to Observance of Friday As a Day of Mourning and of Prayer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The first official act of President Coolidge as the new executive of the nation was his signature today of a proclamation announcing the death of President Harding and calling on the country to observe next Friday, August 10, as a day of mourning and prayer. On that day Mr. Harding's body is to be buried at Marion.

The proclamation was signed at 11:18 A. M. It was brought to the president's hotel suite by J. Butler Wright, third assistant secretary of state, and then was returned to the state department for the signature of Secretary Hughes.

The new chief executive held a series of conferences, for the most part devoted to the discussion of plans for the funeral of the dead president. Among those with whom he conferred was James B. Reynolds, former treasurer of the Republican national committee, and manager of President Coolidge's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination in 1920.

At his first conference with newspaper men the president declined to discuss administration policies. He would not comment on the possibilities of an extra session of congress.

COMPROMISE IS BEING PLANNED FOR NEW TREATY

Effort to Settle Difference Between British and French

PARIS, Aug. 4.—The League of Nations temporary committee on limitation of armaments, which is holding sessions here to discuss the pending plans, took up today the proposed compromise between Lord Robert Cecil's plan and the French project.

The former provides for a general guarantee pact with a general reduction of armaments, and the latter for partial guarantee pacts between two or more powers with limitations of armaments proportionate to the security afforded by such pacts.

The compromise probably will form the basis of the text of the treaty which the committee will draw up to present to the next assembly of the league.

The compromise was prepared by a sub-committee including Lord Robert Cecil and Col. Requin, author of the French plan at a meeting in London. The British and French being agreed on the proposition, it is thought, there will be little opposition from other sources. The chances for the presentation of the project for a treaty to be submitted to all the league members after the assembly had passed on it are therefore considered good.

HARDING ESTATE ESTIMATED TO BE NEARLY MILLION

MARION, O., August 4.—Close friends of the late President Harding tonight estimated that his estate was worth between $700,000 and $800,000. Before he assumed the presidency Harding was regarded as a wealthy man, having amassed a fortune from the Marion Star, a newspaper which he had owned since 1884 until it was sold recently. A controlling interest held by Harding was said to have brought more than a half million dollars. Harding's last will made just before he left Washington for Alaska, has not been probated.

GUILTY IS PLEA OF TERRA COTTA COS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Six terra cotta manufacturing concerns charged with violations of the Sherman anti-trust act, entered pleas of guilty today before Federal Judge Cliffe and fines ranging from $1,500 to $3,000 each were imposed.

The companies are the Northwestern Terra Cotta Co., the American Terra Cotta and Ceramic Co., and the Midland Terra Cotta Co., all of Chicago, each fined $3,000; and the St. Louis Terra Cotta Co., of St. Louis, Mo., the Western Terra Cotta Co., Kansas City, Mo., and the Denver Terra Cotta Co., Denver, Colo., each fined $1,500.

RAIL OFFICIALS IN CHICAGO ARE WATCHING TRAIN

Use Every Precaution in Handling Harding Funeral Special

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Extreme care is being taken by railroad officials in selecting locomotives and employees in handling the Harding funeral train. As a precaution the Chicago and Northwestern road will run a pilot train, consisting of an engine and two coaches, in advance of the funeral special. The pilot train will leave Council Bluffs and proceed at all times approximately fifteen minutes in advance of the special.

Orders have been issued to keep all freight and work trains and locomotives off the main eastbound track for one hour before the funeral train passes. A clear track is to be provided the funeral train, which the railroads are endeavoring to move with the greatest celerity and safety. Even westbound passenger trains are required by the Northwestern officials to slow to six miles an hour after passing the pilot train, and freight trains have been ordered to stop immediately on meeting the pilot train.

The funeral train while it will not stop except for the necessities of operation, will reduce its speed in passing through cities and villages and locomotives will be changed at Boone, Ia., and Clinton, Ia.

The funeral train on entering Chicago will not proceed downtown but turn from the Kedzie Avenue Station to Kinzie and Rockwell streets south to Twenty Second and Rockwell streets, where it will be delivered to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

BOOK TRUSTS KILL TRADE FOR THE OLD TIME ANTIQUARIAN

Experts No Longer Browse Around the Old Shops

CHICAGO, August 5.—The belated antiquary of the story books and the musical comedy stage who discovered ancient toms worth thousands of dollars is no more. A book trust has monopolized the European market, according to Pierce Butler of the Newberry library, who recently returned from a collecting trip in the principal European cities.

"Time was," said Mr. Butler, "when an expert could browse around in dingy little shops and make all kinds of finds. But the romance has gone out of collecting, and bibliophiles now are business men who have cornered the market. About thirty firms have combed every possible library in Europe and know just where every volume may be found. There are not many thrills left for the antiquary."

Makes Annual Trips
Mr. Butler makes annual trips abroad for the Newberry library to collect books published before 1500. These works are somewhat scarce but he has built up a library of 950 copies for the rare books department of the Newberry.

"Post war conditions abroad have been very favorable for American collectors, however," said Mr. Butler. "Formerly every professional man in Europe vied to own at least one or two precious and valuable books. Poverty caused by the war is making these men throw their copies on the market. Americans are buying them at ridiculously low prices. I obtained two books published before 1500 at less than a dollar apiece."

"Libraries, too, are feeling the pinch. The market is flooded with works that before 1914 could not be obtained for love or money."

On Mr. Butler's recent trip he visited Florence, Prague, Vienna, Rome and many other cities in search of rare books. He returned with 235 volumes all published within the first 50 years after Gutenberg discovered the art of printing.

SIMPLICITY AND DIGNITY TO MARK HARDING FUNERAL

Many High Personages to Participate in Rites

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The national capital in the midst of mourning symbolic of that of the nation went forward today with the preparations to receive and pay a last tribute to the dead president.

A state funeral, to be marked by a solemn dignity and simplicity was arranged for by President Coolidge and other high officers of the government. President Coolidge, Chief Justice Taft, members of the cabinet and government council will participate in the ceremonies. At the suggestion of Mr. Coolidge, Woodrow Wilson was invited to take part, but Rear-Admiral Grayson, Mr. Wilson's physician, announced that because of the condition of his health he would be unable to participate in the ceremonies.

PENSION OF $5,000 FOR MRS. HARDING

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—If precedents are followed, Mrs. Warren G. Harding will receive a life pension of $5,000 a year from the government.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, were given the annuities by vote of the house and senate, and members of congress said today there was little doubt of similar action in the case of Mrs. Harding.

GETS LIFE SENTENCE ON ASSAULT CHARGE
Shelbyville, Ill., August 4.—William Bryant, colored 20 years old, who was threatened with lynch law last Tuesday following an assault on a 12 year old white girl, was sentenced to life imprisonment here today. A grand jury indicted him after 12 minutes deliberation, he confessed.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 8, 9, and 10.

Coblenz.—The inter-allied commission today ordered the flags of the allied nations placed at half mast in memory of President Harding.

Lima, Peru.—The Peruvian congress has decided to proclaim national mourning, on the day President Harding is buried.

Chicago.—When the last rites are performed over the body of President Harding at Marion, O., an August 10, all business, traffic and industry in Chicago will be stopped and the city will be bowed in silent prayer, according to plans adopted by the city council committee.

Washington.—Through Andre Maginot, French minister of war, the French army extended today to the American army "its valiant sister in arms," an expression of "faithful friendship and feeling of cordial sympathy" in connection with the death of President Harding.

Des Moines, Ia.—Senator A. B. Cummins, as presiding officer of the senate, has instructed all United States senators to report in Washington on Monday, to make preparations for participation in President Harding's funeral. He will depart for the capital tonight.

Chicago.—The flag at Fort Sheridan was flying at the top of the staff until lowered at retreat last night. MORSE, SONS AND OTHERS ACQUITTED OF FRAUD CHARGE

Were Tried on Conspiracy to Defraud Government

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Charles W. Morse, New York ship builder, his three sons, and four others were acquitted here today by a jury of charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with war time ship construction and operation contracts.

Besides Charles W. Morse, the defendants were Irwin A. Morse, Benjamin W. Morse, Harry P. Morse, N. H. Campbell, of New York treasurer of the United States Steamship Co., Robert A. White of New York, president of the United States Transport Co., Rupert M. Much of Augusta, Maine, assistant treasurer of the Virginia Ship Building Corporation and Philip Reinhardt, formerly Emergency Fleet Corporation auditor at the Virginia Ship Building plant at Alexandria.

History of Case
The Morse case was the first of the big so-called war fraud criminal cases to be presented to a jury.

Ten indictments were returned containing two counts each, and setting forth thirty overt acts charged against the several defendants in the conduct of relations between the several Morse companies and the emergency fleet corporation during and immediately after the war.

The defense contended that the case should have been a civil one against the Morse companies for an accounting, but the government took the position that there had been a conspiracy, not only to defraud the government out of several millions of dollars, but to delay and thwart the shipping board in carrying out the war-time shipbuilding program. To support this charge government counsel for eleven weeks led the jury through a maze of statistics and figures taken from the books of the various Morse companies including the Groton Iron Works, the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, the United States Steamship Company and the United States Transport Company.

ILLINOIS TO BE REPRESENTED AT PUBLIC FUNERAL

Governor Small to Appoint Committee of Prominent Men

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 4.—Governor Small is considering the appointment of a committee to be composed of former governors of the state, mayors of cities and prominent citizens to represent Illinois at the funeral of Warren G. Harding in Marion, O., according to announcement today by George P. Sutton, the governor's secretary. The governor is in Kankakee and probably will make the announcement of his committee there tonight, Mr. Sutton said.

According to tentative plans, members of the committee would go to Washington, probably to lay a symbol of the state's sorrow on the bier of the departed president, and then would go to Marion in a body to be present at the funeral ceremonies.

The state has five ex-governors, Congressman Richard Yates, Springfield; Charles S. Deneen, Chicago; Edward P. Dunne, Chicago; Frank O. Lowden, Oregon, Ill.; Joseph Fifer, Bloomington.

THREE MEN ESCAPE HARRISBURG JAIL

HARRISBURG, Ill., Aug. 4.—Three prisoners, Alford Anglin, John Dooley and Donald Williams, the first two from Harrisburg and the latter from Danville, made a daring escape from the county jail here this morning and are still at large. Three men were put in a run around of the jail to clean up the premises. When all doors had been locked and jail officials were on the first floor they climbed thru the ventilating shaft to the roof, jumped two stories high to the ground and escaped to the Big Four railroad yards where they were seen to get on a coal train headed south. All three were charged with burglary and larceny.

STRUCK BY AUTO

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 4.—Herbert Wesley Swope, Pekin, was late last night struck by an automobile about 8 miles south of Pekin on the hard road. Swope was repairing a tire when struck by a large red automobile which was traveling at a high rate of speed, and continued after hitting him. Swope died shortly afterward. Mrs. Swope who was with her husband at the time was unable to obtain the number of the automobile.

NEVADANS PAY RESPECTS AS TRAIN PASSES

Place Wreaths on Harding Special Going Thru Towns

(By the Associated Press)

ON BOARD HARDING FUNERAL Train, Elko, Nevada, Aug. 4.—The pioneers of the west paid their respects today to the memory of Warren G. Harding as the funeral train bearing the body of the late president crossed Nevada, hurrying on to Washington. Men, women and children stood by the railroad side with heads uncovered, hearts aching and often with misty eyes.

President Harding had the pioneer much in mind during his trip. Today was the pioneer's opportunity to show their appreciation and love for the dead leader, and they did.

Place Flowers on Train.
Not alone did these pioneers stand silent and uncovered, but they placed bouquets and wreaths aboard the train in order that there might always be fresh blossoms in the death chamber of the last car. The hearts of these not only ached because of the death of their chief but beat in sympathy for Mrs. Harding. It can be said without fear of contradiction that no living woman is more popular in the west than Florence Harding. And the heart of the west went out to her in her bereavement. Thruout the day, she continued to bear up bravely under her great sorrow.

Pay High Tribute
Never was higher tribute paid any of the nation's dead than was given by these men, women and children of the states traversed today, who had collected along the railroad route, from desert to settlement, ranch house, town and city nearby.

The picture which passed before the eyes of those waiting was that of the slow moving train the last coach of which revealed a bier and guards standing at parade rest with eyes cast down, focused upon the coffin about which they stood. Floral pieces of great beauty banked against the walls of the chamber served as a background for the picture of the men on guard, and their charge, as the train moved on, gathering speed again as it passed into the open country, devoid for miles in some places of any sign of habitation of life.

SADDENED GROUPS NOTE PASSING OF FUNERAL SPECIAL

Train Bearing the Body of the Late President Harding Due to Reach Omaha Early Monday Morning and Chicago That Afternoon—Washington 1:30 P. M. Thursday

(By the Associated Press)

ON BOARD HARDING FUNERAL TRAIN, Colfax, Cal., Aug. 4.—The sorrow in the hearts of the American people over the death of their leader was exemplified today by silent groups along the railroad side as the special train bearing the body of Warren G. Harding traversed western California and the wide reaches of Nevada.

With bared heads they stood, sometimes in groups of hundreds, sometimes only a score, and sometimes singly. There was none too poor, none too rich, none too mighty or none too humble to pay their mark of respect to memory of President Harding. They were conscious only of showing their sorrow, but to those on the funeral train, they typified the American people as a whole.

It was the same from early morning on thru the day. It had been the same since the train left San Francisco at 7:15 o'clock last evening. It will be the same thruout the 3,000 mile journey to Washington and after that the trip to Marion, Ohio. The nation mourns as the saddest transcontinental journey in its history is being made.

Mingled with their sorrow the silent bareheaded people felt the utmost sympathy for the bravely calm woman who rides with her dead in the last car of the train. The hurriedly passing train gave no opportunity to express their sympathy in words, but Mrs. Harding read it in their faces. It gave her a strength in this hour of sorrow, but it also was constant reminder, even though she needed none of her great loss.

Mrs. Harding continued to bear up well under the strain and was still as determined as she was on Thursday evening that she wouldn't break down.

She retired early last night temporarily exhausted by the ordeal of the day.

While she sought sleep, the silent groups marked the passing of the train. When San Francisco had paid its last respect, other towns and cities along the route took up the task. Burlingame, San Mateo, Redwood City, Tracy, Stockton, Niles and others continued the tribute which began at the Golden Gate. The coming of darkness seemed to make no difference and thousands stood along the tracks at Stockton as the train crept slowly through the city. All was quiet on the train during the night. There was only the clicking of car wheels as the train sped on. The only movement was the hourly change in the guard of honor beside the flag-draped coffin in the last car. Each hour two soldiers, a sailor and a marine made their way quietly through the train to the last car. Soon afterward the guard they relieved made its way back.

Stop at Sparks.
The special train bearing to Washington the body of President Harding paused at Sparks a few minutes this morning before speeding onward. Here, as at every station passed during the night, were silent men, women and children, all with head bared and many with bowed heads.

Mrs. Harding rested last night as well as the train sped on. The only movement was the hourly change in the guard of honor beside the flag-draped coffin in the last car. Each hour two soldiers, a sailor and a marine made their way quietly through the train to the last car. Soon afterward the guard they relieved made its way back.

Golden sunshine, like that which streamed thru the windows of his sick room in San Francisco and heartened Mr. Harding in his battle against disease, early today at Fallon, brightened up the observation port of the private car Superb, where rests the flag-draped coffin amid the floral tributes of a loving people. The sunshine of many other states will light the room before the journey is over.

Men who served in the world war seem to be taking the lead in paying tribute to the memory of the late president. At Stockton, Brighton and some of the other California towns passed last night, former service men, as represented by the American Legion, formed a guard of honor for the train. No guards are needed, for everywhere the sorrowing people stand some distance away as if not wishing to intrude upon the grief of those aboard.

Passing Nevada.
Specks of towns on the Nevada desert paid their respects to the memory of Warren G. Harding today as the special train carrying his body hurried along. Sparks, Fernley, Haen, Desert, Lovelock and Inlay showed their deep measure of devotion. Roughly dressed men from the ranches, keepers of stores in the small towns and track laborers from Mexico all stood up uncovered as the train passed through the little desert oases.

At Hazen there was a little group of American Legion men with their flag, from the town of Fallon. Selected crews of train men, all with excellent records as to general safety and efficiency in the handling of trains, are being honored by the Southern Pacific railroad with a part in the funeral procession.

WOMEN WILL BE HONORED BY MONUMENT

Many Monuments to Illustrious Dead in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Monuments to the illustrious dead of Illinois and to the great incidents of its past are multiplying as the years go by. There are now almost two dozen public statues and monuments within the state not to mention many others erected to sons of Illinois in other parts of the Union.

Nearly every legislature makes some provision for the erection of new monuments or repairs to old ones. The last general assembly appropriated $105,500 for various memorials to the state's great men and women.

For the first time women are to be accorded the honor given to heroes; but in this case it is women in general and no particular member of the sex. Among all of the state's statutes and monuments there is not a single public memorial to a woman, as far as records here disclose.

The 53rd General Assembly re-appropriated $25,000 for the erection of a statue to mothers of Illinois soldiers to be placed in the new Centennial Memorial building. Plans for this statue have not yet been completed.

Nathaniel Pope, the great leader at the time of the state's entrance into the Union is to be memorialized in some permanent manner. The legislature voted $35,000 for a statue to Pope, which probably will be placed here on the capitol grounds.

An appropriation of $25,000 was made to the Lincoln Park commissioners in Chicago to erect in Lincoln park an equestrian statue to Philip H. Sheridan of Civil War fame.

The 37th Infantry of the 33rd Division in the world war is to be remembered by a statue at 35th and Grand Boulevard, Chicago. For this purpose an appropriation of $15,000 was made.

Edwardsville is to have a statue of Governor Edward Coles second governor of the state, who came from Madison county and was inaugurated chief executive Dec. 5, 1822. An appropriation of $5,000 was made for this purpose.

The rain yesterday is said to have been very beneficial to corn altho plants were leveled almost to the ground in some fields.
But come to think of it, possibly rain isn't a good thing for corn.
It may make the crop too big
and a consequent slump in prices.
Farmers are beginning to wonder if the whole policy of striving to increase production isn't wrong.
Possibly it will be necessary to revise the Illinois slogan of "limestone, phosphate and legumes."
The Woman's Party in its demand that "men and women shall have equal rights thruout

the U. S. and every place in its jurisdiction" may be overlooking the fact that if such a platform is carried out women while gaining some rights may lose others that they now enjoy.
Such a change in the law would nullify the many statutes now in effect with reference to the hours women work and the nature of occupations that they shall follow.
Now one can see the special advantage of having had the vice-president of the U. S., attend sessions of the cabinet. This was a policy inaugurated by the late President Harding at the beginning of his administration. He announced then that he expected the vice-president to be an unofficial member of his cabinet and to be present at all regular cabinet meetings and conferences.
This policy has kept Mr. Coolidge much more closely in touch with governmental affairs than would otherwise have been true and has the better prepared him for his new duties that have been so suddenly thrust upon him.

THE AMERICAN BEAUTY
—IN—
"Money, Money, Money"
When a girl has everything money can't buy—and she wants money! Priscilla was tired of cheap stores—of her cheap auto—tired of her cheap home. "Home, Sweet Home," sounded like a dirge. Everyone seemed to have everything she wanted but couldn't get. Then it rained money—and the storm broke, wealth poured in, but she paid and paid for her brief joys, finding almost too late that all her fortune could not buy back lost love. Don't miss it.

become publicly articulate—the personality of Warren G. Harding and the manner of his death will live long in the minds of true Americans blessed with the ability to think.
That some of his best constructive labors were accomplished without blare of trumpets lost for him, perhaps, some of the admiration that small brains accord only to the spectacular.
Well may we all pray that President Coolidge, another gentlemen unafraid, and all who follow him, may measure up to the size of Harding.
There have been "greater" Presidents. Doubtless there will be more, unless the radicalism that snapped at Harding's heels succeeds in scuttling the Ship of State. But if the United States can maintain a Harding standard in the White House and a level of consciousness and wisdom in Congress one-half the quality of his,
this nation will endure until the last Roll Call on the works of man.
We may be thankful that he left his house in order. Almost to the day of his death he had applied himself to solving national problems. Others problems pend.
It could not be otherwise.
The Harding Cabinet, which President Coolidge desires to remain intact, averages high in capability. Its members were not mere puppets. At this moment the country may be thankful for that; thankful also that they had access to the Presidential mind and thoroughly understood the reasoning that induced his policies. Not the least of these, as it now turns out, was the President's insistence that Vice-President Coolidge sit in Cabinet meetings, that he might be in constant touch with the activities of the Administration.
Verbal encomiums are cheap.
Printer's ink is cheap. Flowers do not always carry sincerity with their scented petals.
But what the United States
most needs in this hour is person-
al restraint among its citizens.
No greater tribute could be paid to the memory of an upright leader, who died on the battle line of duty, than suppression at this time of those so devoid of principle as to attempt to capitalize his passing.
Let the Communist and the "respectable" political wrecker sing low in the presence of our half-masted flag.
Let the market raider and the professional false alarmist sheath their poisoned knives while patriotism bows its head.
Let self-seeking politicians permit the rest of us to demonstrate to the outside world that American loyalty does not end at the brink of the grave.
He left his house in order.
There are enough of us to keep it so.

SCHWAB IS OPTIMISTIC ON OUTLOOK Steel orders are not pouring in at the wholly abnormal rate of the first quarter of the year, and it is doubtless well that this is so. The pace was then too rapid to be maintained for long. The slackening in demand, however, has not been anything like as pronounced as the public might deduce from the action of the stock market.
The principal steel companies have all the business on hand
that they have workers to handle.
In fact, the steel industry is still suffering from that scarcity of labor which, it seems to me, can only be remedied by allowing a larger percentage of able-bodied, industrious workers to come into this country to help us to develop its enormous resources. Our immigration policy should be guided by quality rather than quantity.
As for the general business
outlook, I regard it, despite certain uncertainties both abroad and at home, as distinctly encouraging. The lull was needed, for things were being overdone
in the first months of the year.
Industry, business, banking all are today on a sound, strong basis.
I am optimistic.—Charles M.
Schwab, in Forbes Magazine.

Joe Barton, who was arrested at Springfield on statements of a companion that he had robbed

was committed to the county jail.
Barton claimed at the hearing that he was hungry and broke into the bakery to get something

sults of course in an enormous accoutrements of civilization.
It also involves at least the alteration of buildings from which removal has taken place and in many cases the demolition of them and their replacement by structures of another type.
"It is also a matter of note that the growth of the automobile has seriously affected the shortage of labor in the building crafts. Many young men have taken work in the automobile industry who would otherwise no doubt have gone into the building trades. In like manner the enormous amount of highway construction which has been going on in this country since the war and for a number of years before has seriously drained the building industries of labor.
"There is nothing to indicate that these various developments will follow naturally the growth of the automobile business and hence these activities will continue to divert labor from the building crafts, while the migrations of population now in progress will undoubtedly keep effective an abnormal demand for new buildings."

ELK GOLFERS OF TWO CITIES MEET TODAY

Local Lodgemen Will Meet Crack Springfield Team on Municipal Course This Afternoon—Prominent Players on Teams

The Jacksonville Elks' golf team will clinch in mortal, or nearly so, combat with the crack representatives of the Springfield lodge in the line of golf. A couple of months ago the Springfield aggregation gave the locals a trouncing that still makes them smart, and they are determined on revenge.

The foes will arrive this morning and will immediately go to the park to spy out the land and practice a few brassies and putts on the golf course. At noon the Jacksonville Elks will entertain the Springfield teams at dinner at the Peacock Inn.

One o'clock will see both teams on the course and ready for the fray. Four foursomes will be played and the lineup will be as follows: Springfield: Walter Reid, John Conlon, Dr. French, and Messrs. Curtis, Winchell, Van Sice and Littlejohn; Jacksonville: Clifford Alves, Justus Wright, A. R. Gregory, F. E. Farrell, Joel Hubble, Wood Phillips, Eric Rantz and Dick Reynolds.

Walter Reid, member of the capital city team, has been several times winner of the cham-pianship of Springfield, and the other members of the team are of a like caliber. But it must not be supposed that the locals are entirely defenseless far from it! The Elks lay claim to an extra large portion of the golfing talent of the town—and Jacksonville is very far from having a poor record in the golfing world. The match is public and a gallery is encouraged.

SUGGESTS HOTEL NAME

The name for the new hotel which is to be built in Jacksonville is still a subject for discussion. Mrs. J. Parker Doan has written to Secretary Welch suggesting the name "The Lincoln" as an appropriate name. This name came to Mrs. Doan's mind from the fact that The Lincoln was one of the most attractive hotels she saw in the south and further because this is properly accounted as a part of the Lincoln country. In the earlier days of his life Lincoln was not an infrequent visitor in Morgan county.

PRUDENTIAL MEN HERE FOR PICNIC

Representatives from Springfield District Had Enjoyable Day at Park—Talked Over Some Business Affairs

Yesterday being the second anniversary of Assistant Superintendent R. L. Dumps' service with the Prudential Life Insurance company in Jacksonville, the local staff were hosts to the Springfield district at a picnic given at Nichols park beginning at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning and continuing until the storm interrupted the ball game between the Springfield and Jacksonville members at about 3:30 o'clock.

The guests brought baskets crammed with everything that could be thought of in the line of real-honest-to-goodness eats and outside of the very important occupation of eating, the rest of the time was spent at pitching horse shoes, baseball and swimming in the pool. It is the intention to make this picnic an annual affair and to try to carry it on a much larger scale in the future.

During the day District Superintendent A. A. Hoffman of Springfield held a staff meeting of the assistant superintendents present, taking up various business matters connected with the work of the company.

Among those present were: A. A. Hoffman, district superintendent, Springfield; Logan Rape, assistant superintendent, Decatur, with family; C. E. Fox, assistant superintendent, Springfield; L. D. James, assistant superintendent, Springfield; A. B. Talbot, assistant superintendent, Springfield; Edwin Houston, assistant superintendent, Champaign; assistant superintendent R. L. Dumps and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Souza and son Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts and daughter Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Robinson and family, all of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lanterman and family of Curran; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Buckingham and family of Beardstown; E. W. Mowery, J. P. Edwards, G. Gates, A. P. CHARLES HOLLOCHER HAS QUIT BASEBALL

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(By The Associated Press)—Charles Holloch, shortstop and captain of the Chicago National League club, has quit baseball for the season. It was disclosed today. He left a note to William Veck, president of the club, last night announcing that he intended to take a rest to improve his health, and left with his family for St. Louis.

Hollocher had a severe case of influenza and later failed to recover his old time health, but that he contemplated quitting the game, even temporarily, was not known here. In the note to President Veck he expressed regret that he was not able to see him, but said he felt that stomach trouble with which he was afflicted would prevent him from being of value to the club and that he proposed to take a thorough rest.

The automobile was occupied by four other persons who escaped without serious injury.

MRS. HARDING WILL MAKE FUTURE HOME WITH DR. SAWYER

Sawyer Farm is One of Marion's Beauty Spots

(By The Associated Press) MARION, Ohio, Aug. 4.—President Harding's widow will make her future home at the farm of Dr. C. E. Sawyer, personal physician to the late chief executive, just outside the city, according to an announcement in today's Marion Tribune, a morning newspaper controlled by the same men who recently bought Mr. Harding's interest in the Marion Star.

Known as "White Oaks," the farm is one of the beauty spots of Marion. Millard Hunt, who occupies the Harding home under lease, offered to immediately vacate, but Mrs. Harding refused to let him do so. That is the home where the famous "front porch" campaign was held.

The old Marion civic association, which handled things during Mr. Harding's campaign for office, has been revived to take charge of the funeral plans. Attorney Hoke Donithan, a personal friend of Mr. Harding, has been named chairman. A uniform system of mourning for homes and business places will be worked out.

Adjutant General Henderson will be asked to detail company D and the Howitzer company of the Ohio National Guard, both Marion units, to duty here on Wednesday and Thursday.

ILLINOIS TOWN REPEALS SUNDAY AMUSEMENT LAWS

Excitement Election Day Reaches the Riotous Stage

(By The Associated Press) SANDWICH, Ill., Aug. 5.—Sandwich has repealed blue law forbidding Sunday amusements, which has been on the statute books for 15 years, with a tumult at the polls which the sheriff was called on to quell.

The count was 490 to 296, and now the opponents of Sunday movies have appealed to the town council to prevent the referendum from going into effect, saying they were caught unaware and taken advantage of by the supporters for an open Sunday.

The excitement at the election reached the riotous stage about noon of election day when the wide-open supporters rushed 200 voters to the polls. The defenders of the ordinance tried to remonstrate. Words failing, fist-cuffs are said to have been resorted to by both sides until the sheriff came to separate the contestants.

The referendum vote was the result of Sunday movies at a local theater which has been in operation for a month. The Sandwich Woman's club called the city council's attention to the ordinance. The amusement seekers demanded a referendum and carried the day.

The Rev. William H. Evans of the Methodist Episcopal church, leader of the blue law faction, explained the loss of the election by saying that the church forces were handed the challenge before they had time to mobilize.

COOLIDGE LEAVES ONE TASK UNDONE

(By The Associated Press)

PLYMOUTH, Vt., Aug. 4.—President Coolidge left one task unfinished when he moved on to Washington yesterday.

Sitting at dusk in a hammock on the porch of his old homestead at Plymouth, Notch, high on a hill, the president—then with 50 such affairs of moment on him as now—noticed a few days ago evidence of dry rot in one of the great maples which surround his father's farm house. For some moments he sat in silence puffing at his cigar and studying the menace threatening the tree. Then he decided to take the rot and turning tree surgeon, the next day he dug it out.

He planned to fill the wound with cement yesterday—but he was raised to the presidency. So he packed his bag and left the task to his father, casting a final glance at the maple before leaving the farm that has been the home of the Coolidges for three generations.

TO SAVE FISH IN THOMPSON'S LAKE

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., August 4.—Efforts to save millions of pounds of fish dying in Thompson lake near Havana have been started by the state with the granting of a temporary injunction against the Thompson lake drainage and levee district. Attorney General Brundage's office announced today. The injunction, restraining the drainage district from pumping water from the lake, was granted in Havana yesterday.

The state was represented in the injunction proceedings by State's Attorney Floyd E. Putman, who has been appointed a special assistant attorney general in these proceedings. S. B. Roach, chief assistant in the fish and game department, assisted Mr. Putman.

Fish have been dying by the thousands, according to officials of the fish and game department, because of the lowering of the lake has robbed them of oxygen.

PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Further reduction in the make of butter has been noted during the past week, and is reflected in the market price for butter and butterfat. Trading in the larger markets is usually on the basis of carlots of 90 score standards, yet only a few of the creameries are able to make butter that will grade standards on account of the quality of cream received.

A great deal of butter scores only 88, 89, 89 1-2. Butter that does not score 90 or standards, sells at a discount. The market on 90 score standards today is 41 1-4 cents, but 89 score is selling at 2 cents less and 88 score at 1-2 cents less.

Producers have it in their power to improve their returns from dairying by improving the quality of cream, thus enabling the manufacturers to make more higher grade butter.

There was a liberal run of live poultry in New York this week, the market declining to 22-23 cents on live fowl.

A little firmer feeling existed on dressed poultry earlier in the week, but this was quickly dissipated with larger receipts and lighter demand from consumers. There is a large carry-over of dressed poultry on the market and the outlook is for lower values next week.

There seems to be a pretty good demand for eggs for current use, although the market has been well supplied, not only with current arrivals, but with stock that has been stored within the last few weeks.

On account of the hot weather, eggs are not showing up as well as a few weeks back, and a good many dealers have found it necessary to withdraw the earlier packs of eggs from storage to take care of their critical trade.—Swift & Company, Chicago, Ill.

transportation of the body of the late president between San Francisco and Ogden. They man a pillow train which runs ahead as well as the funeral train.

Trainmen not so honored paid their respects by standing beside their stilled trains. Automobiles on the roads stood uncovered in the hot sun as the train passed.

The people of Nevada offered as a symbol of their tribute a wreath, which was put aboard the train at Sparks and which bore the inscription:

"Nevada mourns with the nation for Warren Gamaliel Harding. With honor for the dead, sympathy for the living and pride in that American citizenship of which he was so great an exemplar and leader in the presidency."

"His life was gentle and the elements were so combined in him, that nature might stand up and say: to all the world 'This was a man.'"

The inscription ended with the explanation: "From the people of Nevada." The wreath was put beside the flag draped bier.

NEW PRESIDENT IS A CONGREGATIONALIST

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—President and Mrs. Coolidge congregationalists worship regularly at First Congregational church but during their residence here have declined to have a special pew reserved for them.

After Mr. Coolidge came to Washington as vice-president, plans were made to assign him and his family a pew, but they asked that no preference be shown them.

President Harding was a Baptist and with Mrs. Harding attended Sunday services at a church, at Calvary Baptist church.

ACTIVE SELLING AT MARKET OPENING

New York, Aug. 4.—Active selling took place at the opening of today's stock market, the first session since the death of President Harding and prices worked considerably lower. Losses of 1 to 2 points were noted in such pivotal stocks as Studebaker, the Pan-American issues, and American Woolen.

Among business visitors in Jacksonville yesterday was Conrad Kappel of Mercedosa. Mr. Kappel has long been one of the prominent business men of the county.

News Notes

White Hall, Aug. 4.—Rev. J.
A. Raines is recalling his days of railroading with receipt of intelligence of the death of J. A.
Jordan at Green Bay, Wis. president of the Green Bay & Western Railroad company. Raines was operator at the Roodhouse terminal during the time that Mr. Jordan served as trainmaster there in the eighties. At that time a division superintendent was located at Roodhouse, and W. K.
Morley and S. D. Reeve held that title during Mr. Jordan's term as trainmaster. Mr. Jordan was 74 years old, and was blind for 15 years prior to his death. He has always been regarded as one of the most capable men who ever served the C. & A. at Roodhouse
in any capacity.

Two of the dispatchers were
J. W. Hopkins and Frank C.
Smith. Mr. Hopkins is now located at Grand Junction, Colo., still in the harness. He was recently in Roodhouse while out in this part of the country on a trip, and Rev. Mr. Raines says he would have gone much further than Roodhouse to have seen his former boss on wires. Mr. Smith has been practicing law in East St. Louis since leaving Roodhouse.

Business Changes

rant has been moved to the Car-

has given up the idea of a drug store and will take up duty as a druggist in St. Louis as formerly, having sold the building to the cupied by the Websters October 1st.

The Websters vacate the Steck-

DUISBURG, Aug. 4.—A group of workmen from the village of thousand marks a pound, which is about half what the producers asked.

The incident is believed to have

Babe Ruth Is Crowding Heilman For Lead

CHICAGO, August 4.—(By the Associated Press)—"Babe" Ruth, the original King of Swat, is proving to baseballdom that he is as valuable to his club, the New York Yankees, this season as ever before. According to averages released today and which include games of last Wednesday he is only two points behind Harry Heilman, the Detroit slugger who has been topping the list almost from the start of the season. The big Yankee made a net gain on the Detroit star of 24 points in the last week. Heilman suffered a loss of nine points, his average dropping from .401 to .392, while Ruth by boosting his own mark from .375 to .390 showed a gain of fifteen points.

In addition to this Ruth maintained his lead among the home run hitters with a total of 25 two more than a week ago. Playing in seven games, he scored eight times, and is out in front as the best run getter with ninety-five tallies. Besides his four baggers, Ruth's 1271 hits include 25 doubles and eight triples, which give him the lead in total bases of 243.

There has been little change among the other leading batters during the past week. Eddie Collins of Chicago is leading the sacrifice hitters with 29 and the base stealers with 28. Cleveland is the first of the major league clubs to make more than 1,000 hits this season. Today's figures show that the Indians have cracked out 1006 hits and are leading the American League in club batting with an average of .296. Detroit is second with .295 and New York third with .292.

Other leading batters:

YANKEES ALL SET FOR VIRGINIA PLAYERS

The Jacksonville Yankees are all set for their game today with the Virginia Merchants and the way both teams have been traveling this season it should make a real live contest.

The Yanks have strengthened their lineup by the acquisition of Towers who has been pitching some wonderful ball for the Capps team in the twilight league, and they have also secured for the rest of the season, the services of Leaman Walker, the sensational first baseman of the Metropolis team. The Yanks are now well fortified for pitchers with Towers and Devlin and should hold their own in any company. In McDaniels and Flynn of Jacksonville, Virginia has also a topnotch battery and since the reorganization recently should put up a real scrap today.

The Yankees will play the following lineup: Sellers, 3b; Goodwill, cf; Baptist, lf; Barnes, 2b; Wright, ss; Walker, 1b; Harri-Towers, p; Pulasky and Morris, utility.

JACKSONVILLE'S MILITARY COMPANY

Knowing that the citizens of this community as well as the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations are interested in knowing something about how the local military company is getting along, I am going to make public the following report.

In the beginning after the World war the State of Illinois started in to reorganize the national guard and as Jacksonville had maintained a military company here for years and a good one naturally Jacksonville was looked upon to organize a company, and it was through no small amount of effort the sufficient number (63) men was secured and federalized. April 20th, 1921, as a rifle company, and later made into a Howitzer company. Now this branch of the service was new to all. But at the infantry school at Camp Benning Georgia they standardised on a drill and tactics for a Howitzer Company.

Then the officers and non-commissioned officers of the local company spent six days in schooling in 1921 At Camp Logan under the training of very competent officers of the regular army that were direct from the school at Camp Benning and again they had the same training for six days in 1922 at Camp Grant. This enabled them to instruct the company so that when they went to Camp Grant last year for the regular field training it was conceded by the instructing officers from the regular army that the local Howitzer company was the best one in the State of Illinois. Then the armory burned down with all the equipment last December, but now we have a nice armory and the biggest part of our equipment has arrived and we are holding regular weekly drills getting ready for camp. We go to Camp Grant September 1st, for fifteen days and the boys are looking forward to a good outing as the training this year consists of drills only in the morning, and afterwards spent in athletic sports.

We have had 7 enlistments the last few weeks, but need three more men to fill the requirements before going to camp. This is an opportunity for any young man that can pass the reasonable physical examination required to join the organization now and get a fine vacation outing, and anyone interested should get in touch with Lieutenant W. E. Peters at the Express Company office or come to the armory on regular Monday night drill and pains will be taken to explain everything.

I find a good many young men, from 18 to 20 years of age who would like to join the company but they say that their parents do not want them to join. I think the main reason for this is that parents do not understand so I will explain briefly.

A young man 18 years of age is eligible to enlist in the National Guard for the period of 3 years, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. That does not mean that he has got to remain here in Jacksonville or in other words that his head is in a halter, but should he move away out of the State or the jurisdiction he is entitled to an honorable discharge. That is just the reason we are needing recruits at this time due to the fact that quite a number have been discharged and it is required that the organization strength of not less than 57 enlisted men be maintained.

Let me say this to parents of young men, do not discourage them in enlisting for a term in the National Guard. The training and discipline they will receive will never hurt them, but will be of great benefit to them in their national life. As one of our leading business men of this city once said to me that he served three years in a company in this town and heartily praised the value that training had been to him. He also very fondly related some of the many good times that he enjoyed and called to memory quite a number of leading business men of today that served with him during his enlistment.

Furthermore I will say that it is better for you to know that your boy is at the Armory drilling on Monday night than it is to be in doubt as to just where he is and it costs him nothing. On the contrary he receives pay for his drills. Please remember that we very cordially invite the general public and especially the parents of young men to visit the Armory on regular drill nights.

We earnestly desire the moral support of all civil organizations and the members of the Chamber of Commerce.

I know there are some people who are not in sympathy with the National Guard of which we are a unit but the National Guard made a good record for its self in the World war and the desire of all concerned is that it maintain that good record, and the personnel represents 100 percent young American patriotic blood of the community and all that stands for and it further stands for good morals, healthy exercise and good training. That is an expression of patriotic citizenship.

And some will say Oh there isn't going to be any more war. We fondly hope and expect that there will not be, but there is not a person living who can say that there will be none. As Lincoln said in his second inaugural address, "We have hope for the future but no prediction in regard to it and how well we know that in "case of war the young men have to do the fighting "so come on boys lets go, join the Howitzers and go to camp, September 1st and if the humble duty of K. P. (Kitchen Police) affords you when you return home you can sing this song to mother and your best girl.

I know how to peel the festive spud
And how to string the bean
To wash the dishes, clean the pans,
And on the mop—stick lean
So, if I ever go to war
And never lose my life,
I'll know enough of housework
To make a darn good wife.

An Open Letter

To Tire Users of Morgan County

A manufactured article which depends entirely on workmanship and material, made on a quantity-production basis, is very apt to vary in quality.

The effort at uniformity of product is therefore responsible for the slightly increased cost of goods offered for sale.

To you as a user of tires, one tire means everything. If it is a good one you have pleasure and safety. If a poor one you have grief and danger.

Are you sure the tire you purchased at a few dollars saving is a good one? Are you sure if you go back where you got it the merchant will be there and still be selling that brand?

It is for the reasons set out above we have handled a quality tire, made by an organization that want to deliver to you what you pay for, that is, "every tire 100% a tire."

If you too are trying to do your part 100% and appreciate quality and fair dealing, come on and join us. We are both going the same way.

MAN FAMILIAR ON CITY STREETS ILL

John Kenny, the crippled man in the wheel chair who has been for years a familiar figure in the business section, is seriously ill at Passavant hospital. He was brought to the city from Mount Sterling last night over the Wash. It was his custom to play his trade in the smaller surrounding towns and cities, and he was on such an errand in the Brown county capital when taken ill.

There is hardly a man, woman or child in Jacksonville who has not seen Kenny on his chair going about the streets, or sitting in some favorable spot on the square. He is likely to be missed from the down-town sections for some time, as his condition is considered serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and daughter of Waverly spent yesterday in the city on a business trip.

PLANS SHAPE RAPIDLY FOR LOCAL CHAUTAUQUA

"Turn to the Right" Big Opening Attraction—Lecturers of National-Wide Reputation—Superior Musical Offerings—Talented Entertainers Aug 17-26

The directors of the Jacksonville Chautauqua association are anxious that the people of Jacksonville and Morgan county should have knowledge of the very unusual talent offered by the 1923 program.

Lecturers of nationwide renown, entertainers of recognized platform success and musical organizations unrivaled in variety and excellence, comprise the talent that is offered for the instruction and enjoyment of the people of this community.

United States Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, who will deliver the address on the opening afternoon, August 17th, has had a wide experience in the shaping of legislation in our national congress, and is a man of recognized standing and prominence throughout the nation, whose utterances carry weight wherever they are spoken. To be able to hear a leader in the nation's councils like Senator Lenroot, is an opportunity and a privilege.

Senator Thomas P. Gore, United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, who became totally blind at the age of eleven years, is a man of marked personality, who has risen in spite of his affliction, to a place of great respect and trust in the public opinion of the nation. He has recently retired from public office and his opinions carry weight because of his wide experience. He will lecture on Thursday afternoon, August 23rd.

Governor C. H. Brough, In the person of Governor C. H. Brough, a man has come to the platform who has attracted marked attention by his lecture, "America's Leadership of the World." He has recently completed a lecture tour extending from Florida to Minnesota, and everywhere he has been acclaimed a man with a message. Governor Brough will speak Friday afternoon, August 24th; and on Sunday morning, August 26th he will deliver a lay sermon, taking as his subject, "We Beheld His Glory."

Sam W. Small, Sam W. Small of Washington, D. C., has been termed "The South's Old Man Eloquent." He has spent a great part of the last twenty-five years at the nation's capital, and has been in close touch with the leaders in our nation's life. He has seen presidents come and go, great leaders appear and disappear. His subject at the Jacksonville Chautauqua will be "Is Our Civilization a Failure?" It will be worth the price of a season ticket to hear Sam Small on this subject.

Dr. Ira Landreth, The closing lecture of the Chautauqua will be delivered by Dr. Ira Landreth, a platform favorite, who speaks with an eloquence and force that charms and holds the rapt attention of his audience.

Wm. Rainey Bennett, The directors of the Chautauqua call special attention to Wm. Rainey Bennett, probably the most dramatic orator before the public today. Bennett has a most wonderful personality, and with spontaneous humor and crisp logic, he inspires his auditors. Bennett will speak at the Chautauqua on Tuesday, August 21st.

O. E. Bradtute, As an agricultural community, the people of Morgan county should manifest especial interest in the address of O. E. Bradtute, national president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Bradtute is a forceful speaker, who will discuss problems of vital interest to the farmer and agriculturist. He will speak Saturday afternoon, August 25th.

"Turn to the Right," On the opening evening of the Chautauqua, August 17th, a cast of nine New York actors will present the well known drama, "Turn to the Right." This is a most wholesome production, filled with fun and pathos; and is one of the big attractions of the 1923 program. Some of our local citizens have seen this play three times; and the Chautauqua management feel that a very special opportunity is afforded the lovers of high class drama, in the presentation of "Turn to the Right." This attraction is highly recommended.

Baradell Light Opera Co., On Saturday night, August 18th the Baradell Light Opera Company will present "The Pirates of Penzance." This will also include a cast of nine in the production, and no musical organization in America has done more to lift high the standards of Chautauqua music than the Baradells.

With Sydney Smith, "Andy Gump of the Chicago Tribune," Reno, the Magician; Armitage, with his art of mimicry and expression; Caveney, cartoonist and crayon artist; there is a list of entertainers that can not fail to please and that has never been excelled on any Chautauqua program.

Among other outstanding attractions of the Chautauqua are: Vierra's Hawaiian Company; Count Tolstoy, Dr. Clinton H. Howard, Lewis Williams, Electric Entertainer, the Apollo Concert Company, Harp Ensemble Company, Brown's Jubilee Singers, Neapolitan Sereanders, The Gray Wolf, the Big Community Band, and Morgan County Day. These will be spoken of in detail in later issues. Watch for the Chautauqua announcements.

ARRESTS MADE BY COUNTY AUTHORITIES

Early Hours of Saturday Morning Filled with Activity for Sheriff's Forces—Blanche Wilson in Trouble Again on Boozie Issue

The population of the county jail was considerably increased early yesterday morning by the arrest of seven persons in various parts of the county. The sheriff's forces first went to Waverly, and about 4 o'clock picked up Blanche Wilson and Joseph Chapman, who were found on the public highway in a car and having in their possession two gallons of mule whiskey. Both were lodged in the county jail and later in the day States Attorney Robinson filed information against them charging transportation of liquor. They were each put under bond for $1,000 and sent back to jail. The Wilson woman is already awaiting trial in county court on a charge of illegal possession of liquor. She was out on bond at the time of her arrest.

Delbert Sublett of Franklin was arrested, being caught driving his car on an intoxicated condition. State's attorney Robinson filed information against him in county court on the above charge and he was confined to the county jail.

POLOUT RITES HELD SATURDAY MORNING

Impressive Service Held for Mrs. Elizabeth Plouer at South Diamond Street Home—Dr. Spoonst Delivers Sermon

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Plouer which was held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence, 324 South Diamond street, in charge of Rev. W. E. Spoonst. The service was simple and impressive. The many floral tokens were cared for by Mrs. Charles Minter, Mrs. D. N. James, Mrs. W. A. Fay, Mrs. George T. Douglas and Miss Hazel Strawn.

Dr. Spoonst took as his text Revelations 14:13, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." He spoke of the words of the text as a voice from heaven. He then related the story of the aged couple who had reached the point where they must separate on the journey of life. The wife and mother lay on her death-bed, and when told by her husband that it was midnight, she said, "Are all the children in?" This watchful care for her children, and all children with whom she came in contact, was characteristic of Mrs. Plouer.

Dr. Spoonst asked the question, "What is it to die in the Lord?" He stated that those who have that experience must accept Christ, a thing which Mrs. Plouer did early in life. They must also be obedient and follow in His footsteps. The deceased was always obedient to her Lord and to the principles of her church.

The speaker next asked the question, "Why are the dead blessed?" He stated that death put an end to the trials and conflicts of life, to the evil influence that surrounds us, and to the disappointments of earth. They who die in the Lord enter a superior place of residence and join with a body of superior beings. In summing up his remarks, the speaker used the statement, "Their works do follow them."

We cannot take our material treasures with us, but we have our deeds to make others keep in remembrance. The good works of the deceased insure her a blessed memory among all who knew her.

Pallbearers were: James Strawn, W. A. Fay, D. N. James, George Douglas, Charles Minter and Vorse Bassett. Interment took place in Diamond Grove cemetery.

WIND STORM PLAYED HAVOC WITH WIRES

Local Phone Service Badly Crippled But Early Repair in Progress—Toll Lines Broken by Falling Poles—Some Damage Growing Corn.

The Saturday afternoon storm did a large amount of damage to the wire service of Jacksonville. It was a very threatening storm and for a half an hour people were very apprehensive as they watched the very dark bank of clouds in the west. There were numerous reports of cyclones but fortunately these proved only rumors.

There was some windstorm damage to trees and to corn fields, in various areas throughout the county, but there was no great loss of property. The most frequent report related to Litterberry and the story gained a wide circulation that this town had been practically wiped from the map, as was the case in its cyclone experience some years ago. The statement that there was no heavy property loss was not exact, for the telegraph and telephone companies must meet considerable expense in repairing the storm damage.

J. H. Dial, of the Illinois Telephone Co., stated last night that 1,000 of the company's phones in Jacksonville are out of commission. The toll lines to the south are broken at a point about one mile south of Jacksonville and again near Manchester. Down poles caused the damage near this city and a falling tree struck the cable at Manchester.

To Rush Repair Work, So far as the Jacksonville phones are concerned, it is expected that most of them will be back in use today, as a force of linemen will be put to work and the limbs which are interfering with service will be removed as speedily as possible.

The greatest damage seems to have been done to lines on South East street and North Main street, although phones are out in all parts of the city. It will be something more of a task to repair the toll line damage but this work will also be done just as speedily as possible.

The Bell Telephone Co.'s lines are practically all out of commission. The poles between Jacksonville and Springfield are down for a distance of several miles and great property loss will result.

As a result of the damage to the Bell toll lines, Jacksonville was practically cut off from outside communication. The Associated Press wire to the Journal is a Bell line and it was not possible to secure a second wire as all the company lines were out. The Western Union was also in a crippled condition but about 10 o'clock it was possible to get wire connection with Springfield and an arrangement was made whereby the Associated Press sent summarized service from Chicago by that route.

Toll Lines Paralyzed, It is safe to say that not for a long period of years have the toll lines leading out of Jacksonville been so completely paralyzed. No large amount of damage was done to electric wires belonging to the city, although for a few hours a ground made it impossible to light the business district. This trouble was corrected shortly after 9 o'clock.

The Illinois Power and Light Co., also fared well as there was only minor interference with its wires. The downpour of rain was too much for the sewer system and water overflowed again into some cellars. Very considerable damage was done to the North Main street sewer, which was broken out at two places, between Independence avenue and Walnut street. The breaks are somewhat like that which happened on North Main street several years ago and will mean a considerable expense repair bill for the city.

Street Commissioner P. J. White telegraphed for some needed sewer pipe which are expected to arrive Monday and make possible the repairs.

The troubles of the Western Union Co. were by no means local. Phil A. Henekhan, engineer for the central division, said that there were two bad breaks in the system in this district. One was at the point where the C. and A. crosses Fifth street in Springfield and the other near Valley City. In the latter instance a wire was struck by lightning and a large section of it was found completely melted.

In the Jacksonville business district the lightning played numerous pranks with electric wires but without serious damage except to the nerves of onlookers.

As indicated, the wind storm was general throughout the county and trees and branches were blown down in many localities. Because so many poles were down it was practically impossible to reach any of the towns or nearby areas by phone. Franklin however was an exception and a report from that town indicated that trees were damaged and electric lights put temporarily out of service. Many corn fields showed the effects of the heavy wind but farmers believe that in most instances the corn will straighten up and no great damage result.

CHANGES MADE IN PROPERTY LAWS

Measure Adopted by General Assembly Affects Estates to Be Settled Without Will

Change in the law of descent of property when not distributed by will was made by the last general assembly. This was one of the most important matters of legislation at this session, because of the number of persons ultimately to be affected by it and because of the manner in which it affects them.

The principal change provides that the surviving spouse shall receive outright a share of the estate in lieu of dower, if she or he so elects. Illinois had an ancient law on that subject, and newer states have treated the matter in ways different.

Under the law of Illinois, for many years, the surviving spouse's rights in the real estate were limited to life interest in a certain share, the share depending upon whether or not there were children.

The new statute is of particular interest to every person who has property that will pass to heirs. As amended, it reads as follows:

"That estates, both real and personal, of residents and non-residents in this state dying intestate, or whose estates or any part thereof shall be deemed and taken as inter-state estates, after all just debts and claims against such estates are fully paid, shall descend to and be distributed in manner following, to-wit:

Methods of Distribution
"First. To his or her children and their descendants, in equal parts; the descendants of the deceased child or grandchild taking the share of their deceased parents in equal parts among them.

"Second. When there is no child of the intestate, nor descendants of such child, and no widow or surviving husband, then to the parents, brothers, and sisters of the deceased and their descendants, in equal parts among them, allowing each of the parent's if living, a child's part or to the survivor of them if one be dead, a double portion, and if there is no parent living, then to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and their descendants.

"Third. When there is a widow or surviving husband, and no child or children of the intestate, then one-half of the real estate and the whole of the personal estate shall descend to the widow or surviving husband as an absolute estate forever, and the other half of the real estate shall descend as in other cases, where there is no child or children, or descendants of a child or children.

"Fourth. When there is a widow or surviving husband and also a child or children or descendants of such child or children of the intestate, the widow or surviving husband shall receive as his or her absolute personal estate one-third of all the personal estate, in lieu of dower therein, one-third of each parcel of real estate of which the intestate died seized and in which such widow or surviving husband shall waive his or her right of dower.

"Fifth. If there is no child of the intestate or descendant of such child and no parents, brother or sister or descendant of such parent, brother, or sister, and no widow or surviving husband, then such estate shall descend in equal parts to the next of kin to the intestate in equal degree, and there shall be no representation among collateral, and in no case shall there be any distinction between the kindreds of the whole and half blood.

"Sixth. If any intestate leaves a widow or surviving husband and no kindred, his or her estate shall descend to such widow or surviving husband.

"Seventh. If the intestate leaves no kindred, and no widow or surviving husband, his or her estate shall escheat to and vest in the county in which said real or personal estate, or the greater portion thereof, is situated."

TWO CARS STOLEN; ONE IS RECOVERED

Police were busy here last night tracing the whereabouts of two Ford coupes which were stolen early in the evening. One brand new car, which was taken from in front of the Lukem Motor Co. garage, was found abandoned at the corner of College and Sandy streets. It is evidently been taken by joy riders, who made good use of it, left it to be found by the police.

The other car belonged to R. Petrie of Roadhouse, and was taken from the south side of square about 6:15 o'clock last night. The license number 766-654, and the car was practically new. No trace of the machine had been found at time going to press, the police had notified surrounding towns to look on the look out for the car.

PROFESSOR VIEWS RELIGION AS THE NATURAL IMPULSE

The Natural Growth in All Human Life, Appearing in All Society—No Longer Thought of as Being Manufactured by Some Human—Is Individual Experience

IOWA CITY.—(By The A. P.)—According to the science of the Psychology of Religion which began with this century, religion is a natural growth in human life. Prof. Edward S. Ames, of the University of Chicago told the Seventh Annual Conference of Religious Workers at the University of Iowa here recently.

"One evidence of this is the fact that it appears in all organized society and is conspicuously shown in the outward appearance of all communities," said Dr. Ames. "All have temples, mosques, cathedrals, chapels and shrines. All have priests and sacred ceremonies and holy books or traditions. Another evidence is found in the fact that the needs and cravings which religion seeks to satisfy are common to human nature, the hungers and thirsts for 'daily bread,' for love and for abundant life.

"No scholars any longer think of religion as manufactured by priests or rulers, or as springing clearly from fear, and as instilled primarily by supernatural agencies. It springs up in the course of human experience with the same universality and persistence as language and government and the arts. Men formerly thought that kings ruled by 'divine right' but now they recognize that government is 'of and by the people.' They regard wisdom as a gift of the gods. Now they know it comes by education and experience. Likewise religion is also a cultural growth.

"Several practical consequences follow from this fact. Religion is not a forced development nor is it a delicate flower. It is hardy and persistent and exceedingly difficult to destroy. The question is not so much whether people will have religion as it is what kind of religion they will have.

Kind of Religion.

"Those who fear the race will lose religion do not take account of the nature of man. The great question is whether religion will be crude, superstitious and childish or whether it will be sensible, vital and progressive. Secondly, as a natural growth, religion passes thru successive stages. The ages of myth and magic are followed by ages of critical thought and scientific inquiry. Long periods of idolatry and customary observance give way to epochs of more spiritual and freer faith.

BIG DEMAND FOR HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS SEEN

Benefit of Well Rounded College Education Shown.

Chicago.—The demand for teachers of home economics in secondary schools is very large and it is altogether natural and reasonable for the college to recognize this need of the secondary schools. Ruth A. Wardall, professor of Home Economics and head of that department in the University of Illinois, told the American Association of Home Economics here today.

"Many high schools will choose home economics teachers only from among the college graduates," she said. "The college department of home economics receives many requests from other organizations and agencies asking for young women with home economics training to do various kinds of work and these demands must be weighed along with those for the secondary school teacher. In close connection with these requests from the outside should be considered the real needs of its students. Certainty of future occupation and condition in life would undoubtedly have a positive hand in directly the training of the young student.

Advantage of Training.

"This suggests the wisdom of a good fundamental college training which will really educate the young women, giving her power to think and the means of working out her own salvation under a variety of circumstances and enable her to see the larger relations within the whole field of college training should fit her to life as well as for the work of the teacher or dietitian.

"A greater number of young women go into teaching than into any other one group. This, together with the fact that we must have good teaching if home economics is to be given in our schools, leads to the very logical conclusion that the college should make some provision for training teachers.

"The majority of the secondary schools expect one teacher to handle the various phases of home economics in her classes. This calls for a teacher with all-round fundamental training rather than one with highly specialized training. If the secondary school teacher expects to engage in further study, which she usually regards as a means for advancement in her profession, she will certainly need as a foundation for her advanced work, a good fundamental collegiate training.

CHICAGO CHILDREN DELIGHT IN PUSSY WILLOW BRANCHES

Mrs. Sarah F. Webster formerly a resident of this city and now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dial at their home on South Diamond street is a teacher in the Chicago Public schools. Last winter S. M. Fairban sent her a large bunch of Pussy Willows for her to show the children in her room, which is the upper 4th in the James Otis school. Mrs. Webster found that the children admired the Pussy willows very much and so had them try their hands at drawing them. The children are nearly all foreigners, mainly Italians, and have a strong artistic sense. The work that they did is very beautiful and realistic and is far above the standard of most public school art and of their years. The drawings are being left to show the buds. The pictures will be on exhibition in the window of Smith's hardware store tomorrow.

FARM OUTLOOK CRITICAL

Next Few Weeks Decide Fate of Year, Says Babson

Wellesley Hills, Mass., August 3, 1923.—Roger W. Babson issued the following statement today regarding the crop situation. Mr. Babson is not as bearish regarding the immediate condition of the farmer as are many of his contemporaries, but he does feel that the farming situation will reach a crisis this fall.

"Twenty years ago the great news item effecting industries, commerce, and business in general was the monthly report of the crop situation. For days before these crop reports were issued, bankers, manufacturers and merchants would speculate on their probable figure. For days after these crop reports were issued, newspapers would have editorials and comments thereon. I well remember when the telephone lines and the ticker service would be held up pending the issue of the monthly crop report in Washington. Such an interest, however, no longer exists. Crop reports are now issued without much comment. There is little or no suspense and speculation. Whether we have become hardened to the situation or whether more important things have come into our lives, only the future can tell.

"Crops, however, are still a very important factor for they are the basis of American prosperity. Unless the farmer is prosperous, the nation cannot be prosperous. Nearly a third of our population is dependent upon the crops for its income, especially on such crops as wheat and corn. If these farmers cannot make money, they cannot buy goods. The farmer supply the great buying power of the country. When the farmer loses money, the buying power of the country is seriously curtailed. This is one of the great reasons for the bearish attitude taken today by financiers. The farming centers are depressed. It is possible, of course, that conditions during the next few months may entirely change the situation for the better. The only point I desire to make is that the farmer has reached a very critical period and the next few months will determine whether a year of effort will give him a profit or a loss. A bushel of grain must bring in exchange—that is, in other goods—as much

WORN OUT FARM IS NOW PAYING RETURNS

Benton, Illinois Man Makes Wonderful Record From Land That Had Failed.

Benton, Ill.—Taking possession of what was known as a worn out farm ten years ago and turning it into one of the best paying plots of agriculture, in the state today, is the remarkable record of Jesse Payne of this county.

When Payne moved onto the farm ten years ago, his predecessors told him the farm was too poor to return a living but Payne liked the land and the cooperative spirit of the owner, who agreed to pay for all the limestone Payne would haul and spread on the farm. A few carloads each year sufficed to give him this year virtually the entire four hundred acres well sweetened with limestone.

He had gone into the dairy business and his wholesale trade ten years ago. In order to make this record he kept accurate account of the amount of feed and the amount of milk from each cow and weeded out what he termed "The boarders." He is now enabled to grow enough red clover and cowpeas for roughage and considerable red and sweet clover for pasture, as well as blue grass. He grows soy beans and corn for silage, having erected two silos on the farm. His herd is now composed almost entirely of pure breeds. His cash crops are wheat, hay, hogs, milk and eggs. His wheat this year averaged 25 bushels to the acre, as compared to an average of little better than 10 for the county.

H. A. DeWitt, Farm Adviser to the Franklin county Farm Bureau says of Mr. Payne: "He is an outstanding example of a successful farmer making good where others have absolutely failed."

GERMAN WOMEN PREPARING FOR POLITICAL LIFE

Other Interesting News from Continental Points

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—(By the A. P.)—Mail politicians will have harder runs for their jobs than ever when the 1370 women who are studying political economy and political science in the German universities complete their courses. Most of these students are enrolled in Berlin university where they can make a first hand study of the reichstag proceedings. Thirty of the 477 members of the national legislature now are women and they are being coached by the students, who are delving deep into social, economic and political conditions and framing campaign plans for the election of more women to further the program of the dominist movement.

Jose M. Galvez, Chilean exchange professor who lectured throughout the last school year in Berlin University has received a letter from the president of that institution expressing the thanks of the German government and the university officials for the interest in Latin-America created by his courses and for the betterment of the relations between Germany and South America, which must inevitably follow a wider knowledge of American affairs. Senor Galvez is a former student of the university.

Sieffried Wagner is not at all over awed by the greatness of his father, Richard Wagner, and is busily engaged in his thirteenth opera, content to accept whatever verdict the public gives his work. The son of the great composer, in his autobiography just published at Bayreuth, deprecates the tendency of many Germans to assert that he feels hurt because he cannot be as great as his father. On the contrary, he says, he is really a very cheery person and is proud to have been entrusted with the task of perpetuating the Bayreuth festival. Wagner is about to go to America.

Thieves who have repeatedly robbed the Kaiser Wilhelm II's bed chamber in the old Kaiser Wilhelm palace in Berlin have learned that imperial trappings are not always what they seem.

The marauders threw a gold communion set into the canal ad joining the palace after they had found that the vessels were not solid.

The incident served to recall stories of other possessions of the late royal family which also were found wanting. When the German government in its dire need of gold called for contributions for the prosecution of the war, crown princess Cecilie gave a handsome pair of gold pitchers which had been a wedding gift from a foreign court. She and the crown prince were much chagrined the next day at being advised that the pitchers were only plated. It is still a mystery whether the foreign manufacturer was paid for gold or plated ware.

Czar Nicholas once gave a set of beautiful trumpets to a German regiment for which he was sponsor. The instruments were supposed to be silver but it turned out that they were only light plated ware.

German critics who have reviewed Count White's "memories" which have just been published in Germany, got the impression that the count hoodwinked Americans into believing he was democratic. They also find he was greatly surprised and flattered by the ease with which he was able to get Americans to think his handshakes were sincere and his expressions of admiration for American ways and customs genuine.

The reviewers declare the "memories" show clearly that the count staged his democratic bearing heavily while in the United States attending the Portsmouth conference of 1905 and that he was really a much greater orator than diplomat.

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 4.—Seven laws and one amendment favorable to ex-service men of the state were passed by the 53rd general assembly, according to a review just issued by Senator Epler C. Mills, Virginia, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. The following is a description of the bills which became laws:

1. Appropriation to the Service Recognition Board of $55,000,000 for the payment of the soldiers' bonus. This act was passed in accordance with the wishes of the people in voting the special bond issue. Already nearly $10,000,000 has been paid out.

2. Creation of the Illinois Home for the Rehabilitation of World War Veterans. This hospital probably will be built adjacent to the State Hospital at Elgin. Its purpose is to rehabilitate disabled service men suffering from mental disorder.

3. Granting the privileges of Foreign Wars of the United States.

4. An appropriation of $15,000 to construct a monument to commemorate the services of those who served in the 370th Infantry formerly the 8th Illinois National Guard regiment. This monument is to be constructed at 35th street and Grand Boulevard, Chicago.

5. Provision that money received from the United States government or from the state of Illinois as a pension or additional compensation for military services should be exempt from attachment or sale on execution for one year after its receipt.

6. Change in the school law so that a teacher who served in the military or naval service of the United States during the World War can use that time in lieu of a like number of years in teaching service to obtain teachers' pension, if he pays in the amount of premium he should have paid had he been using that time in teaching.

7. Prohibition of anyone not a member to wear the badges or insignia of the Order of Veterans.

8. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Maloney who have been spending a week at the home of the farmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maloney of this city, left yesterday morning in their car for their home in South Bend, Indiana.

RIVER FERRY SERVICE WILL BE REMEDIED

ROCK ISLAND—Interference in Mississippi river ferry service between Clarksville, Mo. and Calhoun county, is to be rectified by Maj. Beverly C. Dunn, United States engineer, who will begin construction on a 17 foot dike along the Illinois shore soon. A recently erected shore dam caused the river to rise and interfered with the ferry service between Calhoun county and Clarksville. Since Calhoun is the only Illinois county without railroads, the river is its only outlet. The new dike will correct the difficulty.

Forceful Facts Concerning the Interests of Former Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

France is now superior to other nations in aviation, except bombing planes.

The present strength of the Marine Corps is 20,000. The enlistment period is for three to four years.

One-sixth of the soldiers in the United States army during the World War were born in foreign countries.

A full military funeral was recently held at Fort Sam Houston, in Texas, for a burro, "Raggy Andy," the mascot of Battery F, 12th Field Artillery.

The last official staff of the American army left Coblenz, former headquarters of the American army of occupation. The party consisted of Colonel W. W.

Harris, Major G. M. Peek and Major H. J. Weeks.

In American cemeteries in France, many French families come to tend the graves of those they call their own boys, men who were billeted with them during the World War.

Samuel S. Gant, chief pharmacist's mate, whose home is at Liberty, Mo., has served 20 years of active service in the United States navy without a single report against him of an infraction of naval regulations.

The United States is spending on her army 7.75 per cent of her total revenues, while France is spending 18.66 per cent. The percentage cost of the United Kingdom is 9.52; Russia, 33.74; Italy, 14.90, and Japan 16.19.

The Imperial War Graves Commission of England plans to erect a number of memorials on the Western front on which the names of British soldiers who have no known graves will be engraved with a suitable inscription.

Major General Hanson E. Ely, new president of the Army War College in Washington, D. C., was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Honor and the French Croix de Guerre, for his rare qualities of leadership in the World War.

The United States navy is looking for suggestions of names for the giant dirigible ZR-1, which is nearing completion at the naval aviation station at Lakehurst, N. J.

It is believed that ZR-1, meaning Zellepin Rigid No. 1, is not a typically American designation.

The wearing of the "Pershing caps" for all officers of the United States army is now compulsory. The limp or crushed effects are strictly banned. The new caps must be wired inside to maintain the degree of rigidity dictated by the best taste in military smartness for officers.

If the United States maintained as many soldiers as the other powers maintain in proportion to their national revenue and wealth compared with that of this country, the United States should have 749,000 on the basis of the army of the United Kingdom; 2,625,000 on the basis of the French army; 2,619,000 in terms of Italy, and 3,444,000 in terms of Japan.

During the Wilson administration, the United States government paid off $2,500,000,000 of war debts in 18 months, or a rate of $1,550,000,000 a year. The Harding administration has paid off $1,500,000,000 at the rate of $685,000,000 a year, and will continue to retire the war debt at the rate of approximately $500,000,000 annually. This is a fixed disbursement.

Charles Dana Gibson, the celebrated American artist, was recently honored by the French and Belgian governments in recognition of his services during the World War. Membership in the Legion of Honor has been conferred upon him by France, and the Order of the Crown of Belgium has been bestowed by King Albert. Mr. Gibson becomes an officer of the Order of the Crown. The awards are for war poster work.

In an effort to make the Yuletide brighter for American soldiers, sailors and marines in foreign lands and waters, the Red Cross chapters are already mobilizing forces to manufacture Christmas bags. The bags, made of bright-colored cretonne, 10 by 10 inches in size, will contain handkerchiefs, wash cloth, pocket knife, memorandum books, diaries, mechanical pencils, key-rings and chains, playing cards and puzzles, tobacco, pouches, cigarette cases, pipes, etc.

MOTOR LICENSE FEES TOTAL $10,000,000

SPRINGFIELD (By A. P.)—A grand total of $10,000,000 from motor license collections is virtually assured in 1923, according to Secretary of State Louis L. Emmerson. Last year's total was $7,800,000.

The total this year has already reached $8,933,000 as shown in the report made by the secretary of state July 25 to State Treasurer Oscar Nelson, $45,000 having been received in one 24 hour period recently.

This unprecedented sale of motor license is, in the eyes of the administration, a proof that there will be little difficulty in paying off the $100,000,000 road bond issue passed by the Fifty-third General Assembly. Governor Len Small declared in his address to the legislature last January he believed that there would be a steady increase in this means of revenue. No one, however, according to the administration, believed that all records would be so completely broken as they have been this year.

State officials assert that Illinois is on the threshold of an era of good roads, for money taken in motor license collections cannot be diverted to any other purpose than that for which it has been designated, and the only way this money can be spent is in highway improvement.

MODERN ENGLISH WOMEN FREQUENT OLD HORSE MART

Now Seen in Places Mothers Feared to Tread

London.—(By The Associated Press)—The modern English woman is stepping more and more into places where her Victorian other feared to tread. Only this week conservative English gentlemen watched dainty feet enter another precinct where for a hundred years entrance was limited to the wearers of male foot gear—Tattersalls, the famous horse market at Goodwood where society flocks at the end of the summer season.

Heretofore in this widely known equine mart only masculine bids have been heard. It was considered no place for a woman. Nowadays several racing stables are owned by women, so the conservative old timers had to bow once more to the inevitable and let the ladies in to bid for or dispose of their horses. Gradually since the suffrage era women have been gaining admittance to men's political clubs. Once after another of these institutions have succumbed to the entrance of the gentler sex and their walls are echoing the new sound of women's voices.

The Carlton club in Pall Mall settled by compromise of best of the women against the opposition of old conservatives.

The die hards win their fight to keep women out had to give in by procuring a building behind the clubhouse in which to care for women luncheon guests.

Last week also produced the women golf professional in the British Isles.

Although the personnel of the Metropolitan police was reduced 1,000 in 1922 there was a decrease in crime and in the value of property stolen, according to the annual report of the commissioner of police. This, however, had been offset by an increase in frauds of all kinds in the metropolis.

The police find the finger print system very useful and now possess a collection of 379,110 prints. Of 36,192 forms received for research under this system last year, 15,149 identifications resulted, the report states.

The commissioner reports 20,799 convictions for drunkenness or 3,389 more than in 1921. tion of methylated spirits were reported.

There were 675 fatal street accidents. Although hundreds of persons were prosecuted, the cookmakers raised large sums of money and betting continues unabated, the report states.

As far as the official world and fashionable society are concerned London becomes a desert town immediately after the adjournment of parliament. The royal family leads the migration leisure and vacationing classes following suit. The king and queen spent most of the past week at the Goodwood races as guests of the Duke of Richmond. Goodwood is unique among race tracks because their majesties' host is its sole proprietor. The races are more informal than those at Ascot.

King George this year caused the announcement to be made that men were not expected to wear silk hats and the newspapers published that statement with as much solemnity as though it were an official pronouncement of the highest importance.

After the stay at Goodwood the royal family will proceed to their annual sojourn in Scotland. As usual, will spend some weeks at Balmoral Castle which was queen Victoria's favorite home, and will also participate in shooting parties at some of the great Scottish castles. The king still holds the reputation of being one of the best shots in the United Kingdom.

One event of considerable interest to men during the past social season was the revival of the frock coat. This garment for more than ten years past had been regarded as raiment for the older men but it came into its own again at the last royal garden party and was not discriminated against by young or old. Next year the frock coat probably will replace the cutaway for wedding dress occasions in the day time.

CHIEF NOMINATED COOLIDGE
Two Jacksonville men, Hon. J. J. Reeve and Hon. H. H. Bancroft, were at the national Republican convention three years ago when Gov. Coolidge was nominated for vice president. Mr. Bancroft said the plans had been set for Senator Lenroot, but the feeling was spontaneous for Gov. Coolidge. It remained for Judge Smith of Springfield first to nominate him and the nomination spread like wild fire through the convention, amounting almost to a stampede and he was overwhelmingly nominated on the first ballot. Mr. Bancroft had the pleasure of calling the entire roll of the convention which decided the nomination.

The care of Imitation Pearls

After being worn a pearl necklace should be gently run through a soft cambric of soft cloth to remove moisture and dust, then it is well that the string should be put in its case where it will be dust and moisture proof.

How Do I Clean My Pearls?
This is a question frequently asked. Pearls seldom require "cleaning" if properly cared for but, once they are dirty the following is the best method:

Rub each pearl individually with a soft piece of cloth that has been moistened in a fine soap solution, using a pure soap, then dry with a soft cloth.

Pearls are often mistreated; perfume often is sprayed directly upon them and that is injurious as it discolors. Perspiration often is the cause of pearls discolored and peeling and it is better often not to wear them in extremely hot weather, but wear summer novelties in their stead.

ANGLESEY

Bald Holyhead wades into sea,
With shoulders lifted high;
The turquoise hills of Anglesey
Come stumbling, tumbling by.

Stonehedges lazily ascend
To cross inviting crests;
Through undulating fields they wend,
All on idyllic quests.

Beyond are woods where I would know
$f white-robed Druids dwell,
Seeking for sacred mistletoe,
To work some magic spell.

Oh, I would use my hands to till
A field in Anglesey;
I'd set my house upon a hill
That went to meet the sea.

All day I'd labor on the soil,
Beneath a foamy sky;
In eventide at close of toil
I'd watch the ships steam by.

I'd wonder whence their rudders tracked
And whither they were bound;
I'd laugh at travelers who lacked
The quiet I had found.

Would I? Or would I feel an urge
To put out from the shore,
To ride the waves, to face the surge,
A wanderer once more?

SHOULD WELCOME THE AMERICAN PEACE AWARD

The short road to farm recovery will be opened by the political and financial stability which is to be accomplished only by a concerted world effort, Julius Barnes said today in the course of explaining one reason why he is interested in the American Peace Award, created by Edward W. Bok. He believes the Award aims at establishing this "concerted world effort."

"Recent front-page discussion of the wheat growers' distress of America," said Mr. Barnes, "indicates most clearly and continued disorganization falls most heavily on the American farmer. The American farmer is resourceful, and, by machinery and good management, has held his own in producing export grain in competition with cheap-labor countries, whose labor is usually inefficient, and therefore costly."

"But European disorganization, political and financial, has undermined credit and resources, and buying power, until merchant judgment in Europe cannot make itself effective in American grain purchases. This is instanced most emphatically in the fact that in 1922 the apparent total supply of German wheat and rye, both home grown and imports, was only sixty percent of the pre-war quantity which she used to consume. Germany's food grain imports this last year fell seventy million bushels under the estimate, and this fall in imports, with the showing that her own people, in respect to food grain at least, are underfed, is the striking illustration of falling-off in consumption which reflects immediately back to American prices."

"Now, any agency which establishes a concerted world effort in securing political and financial stability will open the short road to farm recovery in America, so that the efforts which you are making to find such an agency should be received with most sympathy by the American farmer, even more than any other American industry."

Charles W. Eliot sends word that he considers it important that competitors for the Peace Award be not limited to the regions of finance, tariff and industrial or commercial activity.

Dr. Eliot says:

"I should think that the offer of five large money prizes might awaken interest among intelligent people in the general subject of participation by the United States in the effort to abolish war."

"So long as all the people who discuss the problem remain in the region of finance, tariff and industrial or commercial activity no progress is likely to be made, all those matters having been in times past causes or promoters of war. If the contestants for Mr. Bok's prizes remain in that region your Committee may be able to award the prizes, but the world will not gain much thereby."

Many women as well as men have been swift to see the possibilities of the American Peace Award.

Rose Schneiderman, President of the National Women's Trade Union League, before sailing a few days ago to attend the International Conference of Working Women to be held about the middle of August, said:

"I am sure that anything which would awaken America to the necessity for World Peace is tremendously worth while."

Miss Mary E. Woolley of Mount Holyoke College says: "I think this Award will attract the attention of people who might not otherwise be aroused to the importance of this movement and will help to focus attention upon it. We are at the parting of the ways and unless we adopt the policy of cooperation and good will among nations civilization itself will be imperiled. I welcome every attempt to arouse the unthinking and to convert the unconverted."

WILL HONOR HARDING IN MEMORIAL TODAY

LINCOLN LANDMARK IS GOING BACK TO SALEM

Petersburg. —(By The Associated Press)—The old log house in which Abraham Lincoln is thought to have read Blackstone and Shakespeare by the light of the open fire is to find its way back to the restored Village of New Salem.

Many years ago T. J. Onetott, owner of the cooperage shop at New Salem, moved the logs to Petersburg and converted them into a dwelling. After numerous changes of ownership it passed into the hands of the Department of Public Works and the Old Salem Lincoln League who entered into an agreement to buy it and restore it on its old site.

Harry Schirring, Petersburg, banker, was appointed to supervise the restoration. Several days ago he completed the foundation at New Salem and this week the logs, each one carefully numbered, will be hauled to the park.

Mr. Schirring intends to have a house raising soon, and the old cabin will go up in one day in its original surroundings. A dedication service will be held sometime in September.

The logs will all be in place in a few days, but the chimney and fireplace cannot be completely restored till late in September.

Will Sell Illinois Hard Luck Railroad

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 4.—With a record of almost continuous receivership for 30 years, the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis, the hard luck railroad of western Illinois, will be knocked down to the highest bidder, September 26, at the south door of the Sangamon county court house.

The history of the C. P. & St. L., as detailed by W. C. Hurst, general manager for the receivers, is that of a corporation face to face with hopeless odds—with everybody and everything against it. Competition was against it, because other roads in the same territory had shorter hauls. Geography was against it, because the C. P. & St. L. had steeper grades. Investors were suspicious of it, for when $325,000 in receivers' certificates were put on the market nobody would buy them. Civilization was against it, for the invention of the automobile and the construction of hard roads made more competition.

The road has 1637 freight cars of which 1929 are in bad condition. It has 51 locomotives of which 23 are out of service. It had a deficit in 1921 of $558,422.43. On a capital stock of $4,000,000 the road has never paid a dividend.

Since 1914 the C. P. & St. L. has been continuously in the hands of receivers, and now its debtors and bond holders have forced action. The line is located wholly in Illinois, extending from Peoria to East St. Louis, from Peoria to Pekin, and from Lock Haven to Grafton. The details of its various excursions into the courts is a story in itself.

Virtually all its business during the years of its existence has been local and it has had to depend almost entirely on agricultural haulage. The mileage on the C. P. & St. L., between Peoria and Springfield is 24 miles longer than its competitors, and between Springfield and St. Louis 17. With the exception of six coal mines and eight industrial plants it has had to depend entirely on the grain and stock movements of farmers for its revenue. There are 35 stations on the line, and 13 of these are competitive with one or more railroads.

Rumors of Fate.
Rumors as to the fate of the hard luck railroad have been many. A few days ago the officers made a trip over the entire line, but not in the de luxe manner in which railroad officials usually move about. W. C. Hurst, general manager; J. A. Mahoney, superintendent; and C. L. Metzger, supervisor, traveled in a cheap make of automobile fitted to travel on the rails.

One of the rumors as to the railroad's future is that the Chicago & Alton wants to buy a part of the right of way—the 20 miles lying between the Mississippi river between Grafton and Alton. The Alton has been building an extension of its Eldred branch into Jersey county on the Illinois river to give Calhoun, the only county in the state without railroads, an outlet for its products. If the C. & A. should then build a line five miles farther and could acquire the 20 miles of the C. P. & St. L. between Grafton and Alton, it would have a monopoly of freight and passenger traffic in western Greene and Jersey counties.

BONUS MONEY PUT TO GOOD PURPOSE

Bloomington.—Bonus money now pouring out from Springfield to former soldiers all over the state, is being spent in a variety of ways. State officials of the American Legion here estimate that fully 38 per cent of the money is being saved in the form of savings deposits and stocks and bonds, while not more than one-half of one per cent is going for recreation. Figures prepared by the Legion officers indicate the money is being divided as follows:

Savings deposits 25 per cent; stocks and bonds 13.3 per cent; payment of debts 15 per cent; clothing for self 10 per cent; furniture 9 per cent; home payments 8 per cent; doctor and hospital bills 3 per cent; lodge dues 3 per cent; living expenses 3 per cent; American Legion dues 1 per cent; recreation 0.5 per cent; rent and board 4 per cent.

WILL PUT STOP TO ALL PETTING PARTIES

Macomb. —Petting parties spooning and public lallygagging on the highways in the vicinity of Macomb must stop, according to Chief of Police Coates, who has invoked the State Vehicle laws to aid him in stamping out the custom.

The law provides that a car cannot be parked in such places without having at least one rear light burning and one in front. Hereafter, the chief said, couples sitting in darkened cars along the roadside will receive the punishment provided by law.

Although most of the offenders select secluded spots outside the city limits, this fact does not disturb the chief of police for he is a constable as well as a city officer. Cars parked along the highway with the full illumination required by law will not be bothered, the chief promises, as long as the occupants are orderly.

PRIZE BABIES OR PRIZE LIVESTOCK

Springfield.—(By The Associated Press)—Prize babies or prize calves?

This is the question of Dr. Isaac Rawlings, director of the state department of public health, who points out that the county fairs and the state fair are offering thousands of dollars for fancy Plymouth Rocks, fat little Berkshires and robust Holsteins. But the cultivation of fine babies, so far as the fairs are concerned, is still in its infancy.

The prize for babies at the Illinois State Fair amount to $520. The total list of cash awards is $130,142. The county fairs make their awards in proportion.

"But the interest in babies at the 76 fairs in Illinois is growing so rapidly that we can scarcely meet the demand for judges," said Dr. Rawlings. "Two thirds of them have asked for assistance in examining and testing the babies, and we are going to add another physician and another nurse this year to take care of the rush."

A thorough examination is given to each child entered in the better babies contest. The first tests are made of the child's intelligence, and following this one is given a thorough physical test.

12 Major Improvements at No Advance in Price

Fifty thousand Jewett owners testify that Jewett Six is the most car for the money that has ever been built! Now—the NEW JEWETT SIX tops all former achievements!

Here are twelve important improvements which add sensibly to Jewett Six's value, sturdiness, comfort and completeness. Read what the NEW JEWETT SIX now gives you in addition to its established superiorities. More than ever Jewett Six now dominates the $1000 class.

1. Large brake drums. Now 14 inches in diameter. Added strength, absolute safety. 18.21 pounds per square inch of braking surface. More than any car its size.
2. Heavier, stronger wheels. More bolts. Larger spokes. A 25% greater margin of safety than ever offered in a car this size.
3. Positive pressure chassis lubrication, using oil not grease. Avoids the mess of grease cups. Masters squeaks. Insures long life in all working chassis parts.
4. Improved valve mechanism—runs in bath of oil—is practically noiseless and will long outwear usual design. Experienced motorists particularly will approve.
5. Improved Rayfield carburetor. Increases gasoline mileage about 10%. Gives smoother, faster action in get-away with no sign of "fuss."
6. New position of gear-shift lever; now immediately under driver's hand—no reaching.
7. New type of spark and throttle control. Smart in appearance; safer; more convenient. A distinct improvement that appeals to all drivers.
8. New instrument board assembling instruments in oval panel. More convenient; quicker, easier vision day or night. Compact; neater in appearance.
9. New type non-glaring reflectors in headlights. Legal everywhere. Reduces annoyance for oncoming drivers. Provides wonderful illumination.
10. Thicker and more comfortable upholstery in open models. Easy spring action, soft cushion effect, a delight to women.
11. Deeper front seats with back tilted to give easier driving posture; longer leg room. A really restful, easy car to ride in.
12. New pattern velour upholstery on standard Sedan models. Makes a rich looking car.

In addition to these twelve improvements, and refinements too numerous to mention, you get in this NEW JEWETT SIX the same sparkling performance that won a nation. Its full 50 horsepower Paige-built motor fills the hood. It drives from 2 to 60 miles an hour in high. Picks up from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds, in high gear. Passes most any car on any hill.

High-pressure, hollow crankshaft oiling system—the same as used on the big Paige and other top-quality cars—insures long motor life. Two gallons of oil per minute are forced through all main and connecting rod bearings.

For a year and a half Jewett Six has been out-performing other cars. Jewett Six buyers are enthusiastic. Now—with 12 important improvements, and a host of refinements the NEW JEWETT SIX is far and away the most sensational value the market affords.

Drive one of these NEW JEWETT SIXES. Let your wife drive. All Jewett dealers are ready to show you. A telephone call will arrange a demonstration. Be among the first!

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE STOCK MARKETS

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Unfavorable crop reports from the spring wheat belt, both in Canada and the United States have had a steadying effect on the wheat market this week despite conditions that have reduced to allow the buying demand from Europe. Compared with a week ago wheat prices this morning ranged from 1c decline to a like advance, with corn 1c to 1/2c down; oats 1c to 1/2c up, and provisions showing a setback varying from 1c to 5c.

Crop damage from rust and blight especially in Manitoba and Southern Saskatchewan promised to cut the 1923 Canadian yield of wheat to hardly more than last year's harvest and at the same time private estimates of the total domestic crop were lessened to around 800,000,000 bushels compared with 862,000,000 bushels harvested in 1922. This implied a very limited amount of wheat available east of the Rocky Mountains in excess of bread and seed requirements after deducting durum wheat which is used for other purposes than bread.

Apparent upsetting of any good prospects of a Ruhr settlement in the near future gave particular emphasis to the abnormal slowness of export trade in wheat and drew special notice to gossip that Europeans were in some cases selling back wheat bought in the United States. General selling, however, was restrained by the fact that the wheat market had undergone a break of 30 cents a bushel. It was contended also,
that allowing for the different purchasing power of the dollar wheat was down to a pre-war level of 63 cents a bushel or less.

With available stocks of corn, 20,000,000 bushels less than last year, July delivery reached an unusual high price, 90 cents a bushel, but other deliveries were held later by timely rains and lowered temperature in the central west. Scarcity of present supplies gave firmness to oats.

A decided increase of warehouse stocks weakened provisions.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

WHEAT PIT SHOWED NO UNUSUAL CHANGES

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Although in some quarters a nervous market was looked for as a result of uncertainties in connection with the death of President Harding,
the wheat pit today showed no unusual changes during the early dealings. More or less selling in small lots that appeared to be in the nature of hedging against purchases of wheat in the country tended somewhat to weaken values, but price fluctuations kept within narrow limits. Commission houses were in general buyers to a moderate extent on the declines. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c lower to 1c advance, with September 95 1/2 to 97 1/2, and December 100 1/2 to 101 1/2, were followed by a setback of 1c in some cases and then a slight rally.

Beneficial rains tended to lower prices in the corn market. After opening unchanged to 1c off, September 76 1/2 to 76 1/2, corn showed a decline of 1c for September and less for December and Mac.

Oats were relatively firm,
starting unchanged to 1/2c
higher; September 35 1/2 to 35 1/2,
and later holding near to the initial range.

Provisions were a little easier
in line with the hog market.

Subsequently, favorable weather conditions in the Canadian northwest together

JIGGERS, CHIGGERS ARE ABROAD IN THE FIELDS AND PARKS

More Troublesome and Voracious Than Ever Before.

Springfield. —(By The Associated Press)—Chiggers of jiggers, whose uninvited presence has been ruining picnics for untold generations, are abroad this year in hungry hordes, according to reports received here from all sections of the state.

Campers and tourists are the principal sufferers, but complaints are being made this season by even casual visitors to city parks.

Chiggers, whose official name is troublesome, are little red insects with voracious appetites. Among those close relatives are the harvest mite and the red bug. When they get on a human being, they burrow in and make their host miserable by a constant itching sensation through scratching, according to Dr. Thomas G. Hull, state epidemiologist, affords no relief.

They live in the fields and constantly are on the move.

"The best way for picnickers to avoid them is to wear puttees or heavy woolen stockings," said Dr. Hull. "Even then they are likely to burrow through the thickest clothing. Another way is to put a ring of kerosene around each ankle and wrist. The odor generally discourages them."

"The surest way of evading them, however, is to mix five or six drops of lysol or cresol with vaseline and apply to the legs and arms."

The insect does not make its presence felt till 12 or 24 hours after its arrival.

People continually exposed to them become immune after a time, according to the State Board of Health, and are no longer bothered. This is true with laborers on farms, who seldom are annoyed.

The variety present in Illinois is not considered dangerous and their uncomfortable effects pass away after about 48 hours.
